

Prescription Assistance Programs for Opioid Use Disorder Medications Resource List:

FamilyWize: “There are no fees or eligibility requirements. This program can be used to obtain savings on prescription drugs that are excluded by your insurance plan, not covered because you have exceeded your plan's maximum limits or our free prescription discount card's price is lower than your program's co-payment amount.”

It Works Like This:

We partner with nearly all pharmacies nationwide to negotiate prescription discounts, so you receive a lower price. FamilyWize understands you're looking to reduce the prices of your prescription medications, and our goal is to help you. Most importantly, our card is for everyone nationwide. That's right! You are eligible to begin saving on your prescription medications today.

1
We Negotiate Discounts on Medications

We negotiate a discounted cost on medications and then pass 100% of that savings on to you.

2
You Show Your Card at the Pharmacy
